Headline:
Drier night with showers fading for most.

This Evening and Tonight:
A dry evening for most with clear spells but some slow-moving heavy showers may continue in south Wales. These showers will fade out gradually leaving a dry night. The breeze will be ease with some fog patches perhaps forming overnight. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Tuesday:
A cloudy start, but sunny spells developing with some scattered showers breaking out across the country through the day, although fewer than of late, with many staying dry. Feeling warmer. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Bright start to Wednesday and mostly dry with patchy rain possible later. Potentially wet for a time on Thursday, clearing by the evening. Sunny spells and less showers on Friday.
